

Summer Exploratory Experience in Design (SEED)

PAID DESIGN INTERNSHIP

Do you ever wonder who imagined and built the space you're standing in? Are you curious about the way stuff works? Do you find yourself thinking about your surroundings and wondering how you can make them better? If you answered yes, to any of these questions, we would love to meet you!

Apply to our six week SEED internship and get paid $16.25 per hour for 30 hours a week. You will be working on a design project guided by experts in architecture, urban planning, landscape architecture, and other design fields. Gain an understanding of what it takes to design our surroundings and learn how you can make a difference in your community!
